

Ohio Arson School, Inc.

Advanced Training for Arson Investigators Since 1954

55th Annual Ohio Arson School

BEYOND
REASONABLE DOUBT

August 3—August 7, 2009

CROWNE PLAZA NORTH
COLUMBUS, OHIO

The past several years, the school has shown the investigator how to successfully take a case to trial and taught new skills enhance your investigator "tool-box". This year, the Ohio Arson School will engage some of the best instructors in the field on the topic of evidence collection, including all sorts of evidence from fires including fire fighter fatality, house and business fires and appliances. Highlight of the week will include a presentation from the City of Charleston coroner, Rae Wooten. Ms. Wooten has spoken all around the country on the topic:

"Lessons learned from the Charleston 9."

She will present and discuss her role in this investigation surrounding the deaths of these nine heroes and lessons learned while managing this mini-mass fatality.
